home from a pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. George Armstrong, in Savannah, Ga.

Miss Shelly Souter returned to her school duties at Belleview today, after spending Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Miss Pansy Souter, who is quite sick.

Mrs. Souter of Sparr came down yesterday to be with her daughter, Miss Pansy Souter at the home of Mrs. Juhan on Fort King avenue.

Mrs. R. A. Burford will leave tomorrow for Boston, where she goes on a visit to her son, Mr. Robert Allen Burford, who expects to sail for the Pacific next month.

Mrs. M. I. Christie and her bright little boy, Leonard, are visiting Mrs.
Christie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. L.
Moore, in this city.

Mr. Fred Lovell, the competent and popular young druggist at the Hunter Drugstore, went down to Leesburg on important business last night, and returned this morning.

The Star regrets to hear of the continued illness of Mr. L. Horne, who is at present in Atlanta, where his wife has gone to join him. We trust he will improve so that he can return to

THE POLITICAL POT BOILING

The city political pot is beginning to boil. There will probably be three candidates for mayor, namely: Major Laurie T. Izlar, the present mayor, and Mr. John D. Robertson, president of the council, and it is announced that Captain G. A. Nash's friends will insist upon his making the race.

In the first ward Mr. Louis W. Duval will be a candidate for re-election as alderman at large. Mr. A. G. Gates from the same ward, we understand, will not be a candidate for re-election.

In the fourth Mr. H. C. Jones will be a candidate to succeed Mr. T. J.
Owens and Mr. Carmichael will stand for re-election.

In the third ward Mr. E. T. Helvenston and Mr. H. A. Fausett will be candidates. Mr. D. E. McIver holds over.

In the second ward Mr. J. M. Meffert's friends have secured a big petition asking him to become a candidate. Mr. Rheinauer holds over in this ward. Mr. R. R. Carroll will not be a candidate from this ward if Mr.
Meffert will agree to run, neither will he if the law is interpreted as appears on its face to exclude his paper from receiving a share of the city printing, high though little enough, it is that much and "every little bit helps" to meet expenses in the paper's field.

A $40,000 CLEARANCE SALE

Messrs. Marcus Frank and his partner, Tom Harris, are preparing for one of the most stupendous reduction sales ever recorded in Ocala.
Mammoth canvases, lettered in green are covering the front of the building, announcing that the sale will begin Monday, November 25th. It will be a sale that will go down in Ocala's history as the biggest ever conducted by an Ocala firm.

THE CAMPS BUILDING

The Camp Phosphate Co. has practically completed its handsome little office building on the rear of Col.
W. N. Camp's residence block and moved into same. The building formerly occupied by the company as an office, is being moved further to the rear and will be rebuilt, composing the rear portion of a handsome new residence to be built on this lot.

BOXBALL PRIZES

The box ball alley management will give a prize of a $4 pair of shoes Saturday night for the person making the highest score. So far, Mr. Robert Murrell of the Star office is ahead.

Rev. C. C. Carroll preached a fine doctrinal sermon yesterday morning, but withal so liberal that it was most acceptable to persons of other denominations.

of the Ocala Gas Engine Works, has gone to South Lake Weir to overhaul Captain Haskell's electric light plant.

The C. W. Park Dramatic Company left this city yesterday for Lakeland, where, after filling a week's engagement they will shake the dust of Florida and make for the red hills of Georgia.

Mr. Ed Carmichael has received a new 22-horse power engine for his Northern auto, which the Ocala Gas Engine Works will install for him.

Miss Christine Richards, who has been the attractive guest of Miss Louise Harris and Miss Alice Bullock for the past two weeks, left yesterday for her home in Gainesville.

We note by the Tuscaloosa Gazette that Miss Marguerite Porter chaperoned by Miss Resha, the voice teacher of Central College, is in Birmingham today to attend the Shuman-Heink concert in that city tonight.

to Miss Fannie Atkinson has just come to light and the boys in the Teapot Grocery, where Mr. Brown is employed, propose to give the discovered benedict and his winsome bride a genuine rice shower tonight.

Mr. E. C. Welch of the Northern & Southern Lumber Company, Cornell, who spent the summer in the north, has returned and was in town today, shaking hands with his many Ocala friends.

Mr. Harry Bullock, trainman between St. Petersburg and Jacksonville on the A. C. L. railway, was in town yesterday visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Bullock.

every morning as early as 5 o'clock if desired.

GLASSES LOST

Lost, a pair of glasses, gold frames, that hook on over other glasses. If found, return to Star office.

A SURE REMEDY

Captain Buckshot Williams has a sure cure for hogs who will go thro' cracks of fences. He said every hog that attempts this feat will close its eyes. So all you have to do is to slit one eyelid and they will never try the experiment again.

See the window display of the International Correspondence Schools at B. F. Condon's Store.

Mr. M. C. Dosh, who has charge of the painting department of McIver & anticipate attending the state meeting of the W. C. T. U., which is to meet in Palatka Wednesday morning, viz:

Mrs. C. L. Bittinger, Mrs. H. C.
Groves and Mrs. Harry Packham. The convention will last three days.

Sam Dillard, of Summerfield, who had such a tussle with acute indigestion several weeks ago that it was thought would land him in another world, is up and around again.

Mr. J. R. Moorhead has spent a good deal of money and time on the lawn and fences about his home in the second ward and has one of the prettiest grounds in the city surrounding his home.

Captain and Mrs. Hugh Williams have moved from the Ocala House to Mrs. J. M. Thompson's, where they have pleasant apartments.
